Glorious Celebration!

What a beautiful celebration of Church ministry and parish spirit we experienced last Sunday.

Deacon Dan Dury's homily inspired us all and the attractive and delicious finger food items added to the joy of the reception after each Mass.

Many thanks to Veronica Wolfe, Irene Probasco & Claire Miller for their gracious hostessing and to all those who contributed their specialties.

Deacon Dan, his family, and the parish staff are most appreciative!

Kudos!

Prayerful best wishes to Sean Glossner and Stephanie Marchi, who will be married in our Parish Church Saturday, June 20th.

IN SICKNESS, IN HEALTH, IN GOOD TIMES AND BAD

Learn how to withstand the ups and downs of married life at a Worldwide Marriage Encounter weekend. It's just 44 hours but it will strengthen your relationship for a lifetime. Plan ahead for one of the next two weekends in Columbus, on July 17-19 and September 25-27. For more information or to register, contact Paul and Marilou Clouse at 740-746-9003 or visit our web site at www.wwmecolumbus.org.

THE WORD

It might be surprising to listen to the three readings that all have to do not just with shedding blood, but sprinkling it on people, as Moses did out in the desert, and presenting Jesus as the great high priest who goes into the sanctuary bearing His own blood, which will "cleanse our consciences from dead works" (Hebrews 9:14) so we can worship the living God.

And then there is the more familiar reading of Mark's account of the Last Supper, where Jesus tells His disciples to drink His blood. Perhaps we have gotten used to hearing these words since they are spoken at every Mass. But if you stop and think about it, they are rather shocking.

In the biblical world, blood is sacred, blood is life. From the beginning animals were offered in sacrifice. But with the offering of the body and blood of Christ, a new relationship has been entered with our God. Through Jesus' gift of His body and blood, salvation was won for us and is present to us when we gather in His name to praise the Father.
