If anyone wishes to help, I will be meeting Sr. Linda soon and can see that she receives your donations. There will be containers in the back of church for the next two weeks. – Thank You!!

THE WORD

Focus on God’s agenda, not your own. This message could be the link between the reading from the Book of Numbers and the Gospel. When Joshua gets upset at the two men who are suddenly prophesying and wants Moses to stop them, Moses asks, “Are you jealous for my sake? Would that all the people were prophets!” (Numbers 11:29). And Jesus responds to His disciple John, also upset that someone outside their group was casting out demons in Jesus’ name, that “Whoever is not against us is for us” (Mark 9:40).

Both Jesus and Moses recognized that God’s Spirit blows where it will: it sometimes ends up in the strangest places, working through very unexpected people. At the same time, no one can presume that the Spirit will always be working through a particular group or the proper channels. We must be careful of trying to box in or corral the spirit of God.

Being on the inside is no guarantee. Thus, we get Jesus’ hard words about cutting off a hand or a leg or plucking out an eye rather than letting it cause us to sin and be cast into hell. Most say this is hyperbole, Middle Eastern exaggeration. I think Jesus is calling His disciples to look honestly at their lives and face whatever it is that leads them away from God. “Deal with it,” He says. We must always watch what we hold, the path we choose to walk, and the vision that guides us.

Those on the inside can lose sight of, lose touch with, go off the path that takes us to the kingdom. And they can take others with them. What matters is that God’s work be done. God will see to it; don’t get in the way.
